Massapequa SEPTA Parent To Parent Network

It is our hope that this Parent to Parent Network will serve as a resource for all parents of special needs children. We are parents who have experienced the emotions of having a child with special learning needs. We have navigated the special education system in a quest to receive the best services for our children. While we are in no way professionals, we feel that by sharing our experiences with others we can serve as a source of comfort and advice to those in similar situations.
